in the price of cotton, which has advanced about two and a quarter cents per pound in the past fortnight. This rise is not due, it is said, to natural causes, but to the exertions of a 'ring" of speculators, who have got a large amount of cotton into their hands and are endeavoring to force up the price still further. The receipts at all ports for the week were 12,083 bales, against 15,187 last week, 17,219 bales the previous week, and 18,548 three weeks since. The total receipts since September 1st, 1871, are 2,641,119 bales, against 3,756,898 for corresponding period of previous year, showing a decrease since September 1st, 1871, of 1,115,-709 bales. The exports from all the ports for the week were 28,838 bales, against 56,540 bales for the same week last year.
